1. Before clicking the submission link, be sure your abstract is written. It is important to know that when submitting an abstract you will be required to provide a title, a 250-300 word abstract and the author(s) information. You must also have gone through the various “Topics of Special Interest” and “Topics of General Interest” as listed in conference website call for submissions and decided the specific topic that matches your submission.
2. On clicking the submission link, you will be asked to login to the SAE website with a user id and password in SAE MyTechZone. If you have not been involved with SAE previously, click on the “Need a User ID and Password” to create an SAE account before submitting your abstract.

3. Once you login, the abstract submission form will be displayed. Please enter the appropriate title for your submission. In “Paper Type”, select “Written & Oral Presentation” for Paper submission, or select “Oral Only Presentation” for Presentation submission. Kindly refer conference website call for submission to understand better on the appropriate type to be chosen.

A screenshot of the abstract submission form. It shows two main fields: 'Paper Title:' with an empty text input box, and 'Paper Type:' with a dropdown menu. Below the 'Paper Title' field, there is a note: '(In the appropriate mix of upper and lower case)'. The dropdown menu for 'Paper Type' is open, showing three options: 'Select Presentation Type' (with a downward arrow), 'Written & Oral Presentation', and 'Oral Only Presentation'.

4. Select the topic pertaining to your submission. Only one topic can be selected
